MONCRIEF HAS GOOD SPORT

CARD POSSESSING LITTLE CLASS TURNS OUT UNEXPECTEDLY INTERESTING.

Aldrian and Edda Figure in a Sensational Finish in Principal Race of Day, with the Former Victorious-Danfield Finally Scores.

Jacksonville, Fla., December 9.—Results exceeded expectations at Moncrief Park this afternoon. There was not much class to the program, but the fields that went to the post were evenly balanced and five of the six finishes found the winners under hard drives to win by small margins. In three of the races noses separated the first and second horses, with the winners in doubt until the official placing was displayed. Darling was the only successful favorite. The conditions of all but the closing race permitted two-year-olds to start and the juveniles were well represented. Two of the races were exclusively for the young horses—the second and the fourth. The field in the latter race was the best that went to the post during the afternoon and the winner turned up in the Beverwyck Stable's Aldrian, which beat the odds-on favorite, Edda, after a long and hard stretch drive. Edda kept bearing over at the finish and carried Aldrian almost to the outer rail.

which beat the odds-on favorite, Edda, after a long and hard stretch drive. Edda kept bearing over at the finish and carried Aldrian almost to the outer rail.

Danfield, which had proven a disappointment on previous occasions here, finally made good by winning the fifth race. He just did manage to nose out Sylvestris. Havre, at odds of 60 to 1, was the longest-priced winner of the meeting. Wen ridden by McCahey, he beat a poor lot in the third when he came from behind in the stretch and nosed out Marie Hyde.

The stewards have ordered Tommy Burns to turn Glucose back to R. D. Williams. The latter claimed the horse after Ragman was bid up recently, and when Mr. Burns turned over his share of the run-up money Mr. Williams returned the horse to him. There is a rule of the Southern Jockey Club which requires an owner who claims a horse to keep it in his possession for thirty days, the rule being designed to prevent Friendly claiming. For a violation of this rule Mr. Williams was fined 50 and was warned not to repeat the offense.

Among loday's arrivals from New York were Joe Yenger, Phil Hyams and John Howard, William Beverly is due here Sunday.

Martin Foley, who has been racing a few horses at Peusacola, arrived from that place today.

The association has set aside next Tuesday as addes' day. It will be the first of these occasions during this meeting. It is the intention of the club oset apart one day each month when women will be admitted free to the course.

Jockey Dave Nicol has recently arrived here from Mexico City, where he rode the winner in the initial running of the Mexican Derby,

JAPAN'S MOST SUCCESSFUL RACING MAN.

San Francisco, Cal., December 9.—J. C. Fletcher, who is prominently interested in racing in Japan, arrived on the Pacific Mail steamer Manchuria recently on a business trip to this country. Mr. Fletcher gained distinction at Yokohama last October at the autumn aneeting of the Nippon Race Club by winning eight out of the nine races in which his lorses started. Besides winning the Maor's Cup and the Australian Cup, he captured the feature race of the meeting and the oldest turf fixture of Japan in the Emperor's Cup, which his royal highness donated.

Mr. Fletcher brings word that racing is flourishing on the Nipponese tracks. The sport is conducted on vastly different lines than in this country. Instead of being legislated against as has happened in so many states in the Union, the Japanese government subsidizes the sport, donates cups to be contested for and, in short, does all in its power to promote the sport. The majority of the men interested in the sport are wealthy, and the meetings are carried through on a high plane.

Woodbine, an Australian mare, was the Fletcher star, as she won all three cups for him. Japanese Jockeys are the principal saddle reliance and Mr. Fletcher declares that they make capable riders, Tie weights range, on the Australian scale, from Ties weights prace, on the Australian scale from Line weights prace, on the Australian scale from Ties weights prace, on the Australian scale from Ties weights prace, on the Australian scale from Ties weights prace, on the Haustralian scale from Ties weights prace, on the Haustralian scale from Ties weights prace, on the Haustralian scale from Ties weights prac

PENSACOLA HAS SOCIETY TURNOUT.

Pensacola, Fla., December 9.—Today's attendance was the best of the meeting. Numbered among the spectators were many of the most prominent people in Pensacola. Ladies' day and fine weather, coupled with the fact that gentienen riders were to show their skill in one of the races, served to bring about the improved conditions and surrounded the track with a genuine racing air. Mr. Merritt, a local society favorite, scored on Ringer in the feature race and was given an ovation. He displayed good riding skill. Though most of the favorites were beaten, the books again quit loser, due to persistent backing for the winners.

Arrangements have been about completed for the transportation by boat to Tampa of all the horses here after the close of the meeting. General Manager Strode left tonight for Tampa for a brief stay, and will return early next week.

P. H. Jones shipped his horses to Jacksonville today.

GUY GARNER'S RIDING THE FEATURE.

of American Jockey List Pilots Trio of Win-

San Francisco, Cal., December 9.—Guy Garner came into the limelight at Oakland today by landing three winners. His riding was the feature of interesting sport that was witnessed by a large attendance. The track was still heavy and there were some upsets. Star Actor, favorite for the mile and a quarter race, looked to be a winner a sixteenth from the finish, but Buckthorn ran past him to wha handily. Diggins, the rider of Star Actor, was suspended for allowing him to swerve in front of Buckthorn and Molesey.

Trainer Bianchi secured permission to run Tony Faust without a whip, as he had sulked in previous efforts when it was used. The horse made an improved showing, winning easily from Dave Weber, an outsider. C. H. Shilling outrode Jabusen and won the second race with Burleigh by a head from Minedocia.

W. H. Travers claimed Emine G. for $650 yesterday.

The death of Wilma, the dam of Sal Atticum, at the Clark farm, led to a rumor that the crack two-year-old Cluny had died. The filly is at Oakland track and is in good condition.

R. J. Farris has sold Judge Cablniss to G. B. Morris.

MANY GOOD YEARLINGS AT JUAREZ.

El Paso, Tex., December 9.—There is now no sickness among the many horses quartered at Juarez. All seem to be perfectly acclimated, and nearly every racer on the grounds, young or old, is daily taking regular training, exercise. Of course, most of the older horses require little training, as they reached here fit and a stiff gallop or two is all they need to put them on racing edge, so trainers are chiefly working on the yearlings that will figure in the baby races beginning on the first day of the new year. A number of these youngsters have already been named. Wade McLemore calls the sister to Sterlin, Lady Rankin and the sister to Rue, Free, and he has also in his barn a good-looking chestnut filly by Thistle Do—Rose of Red that he calls Thistle Rose. 'All J. F. Newman's youngsters are by the Hanover stallion, Abe Frank, the horse with which George C. Bennett failed in his attempt to win the Kentucky Derby of 1902. The filly out of the good race mare, Our, Bessle, he scalls Bessle, Frank; the chestnut colt out of Alma Gardia, Tie Thomas; the bay colt out of J. J. H. Wheateroft has maned his black colt, a brother to Colonel Bob, Lord Leighton, and I. E. Clark calls his bay colt by Luck and Charity—Silver Plush, Erfolg.

The yearlings that Col. W. E. Applegate has here have not been named as yet; neither have those of Barney Schreiber of R. L. Thomas, Those in the Applegate barn, which are under the care of the colored trainer and former jockey, William Walker. Ber fills, by Cogesion, Sanger and the search and the care of the colored trainer and former jockey, William Walker.

GUY GARNER'S RIDING CAREER

GUY GARNER'S RIDING CAREER.

San Francisco, Cal., December 9.—Guy Garner, the leading jockey of 1919, comes from a family of riders. From his father down to his youngest brother they have taken to horses, and the little chap who is now a favorite with local race-goers inherits his natural riding ability honestly enough.

Garner is of small physique, which is in keeping with his entire family, and he looks to have many years of usefulness in the saddle. Although nine-teen years of age Garner stands but a few inches over four feet, weighs around ninety pounds and is quite slender. It was just a few years ago that Garner was a schoolboy at Centerville. Ia. His home was near Bob Allen's breeding establishment and the boy spent all his spare moments around the horses. He attracted Mr. Allen's attention and was taken to Los Angeles in 1908. From the first day that he threw a leg over a thoroughbred's back Allen declares the boy showed a keen knowledge of riding and he advanced rapidly. At the end of the 1908 season in California Mr. Allen went to Vancouver to race, and, out of friendship to Garner, gave the boy his contract, as his opportunities in British Columbia would be limited. Garner went cast and since then his riding has attracted attention all over the country.

The boy's father, D. Garner, was quite widely known around lowa as an old-time rider. He was in the saddle up to ten years ago and is still a small man, weighing less than 125 pounds. "Skeets" Garner, the oldest brother, achieved distinction as a jockey a few years back.

Harry Garner, a younger brother, is at present at the bay track serving his apprenticeship by galloping horses. Guy Garner brought him west with him from his home at Centerville this fail, and Boh Allen, his friend. "He knows a horse, which accounts for him success. You seldom see him hammering away at a horse with a whip."

ATTENTION!!

On Wednesday. December 14, 1 will have inside information on a horse that will win at a good price, probably as good as 10 to 1. If you want a live one don't fail to send for this one. I will send you the horse on receipt of your address. To avoid delay send no money by mail. Send express m. o. or call at office. Terms $1.00.

JACK WOODS, Imperial Building.
260 South Clark Street, Room 402. Chicago, Ill.

WANT WINNERS?

If so, send me your telegraphic address and agree to accept telegrams. Only horses from the real people advised. Two or three times a week with information my people do not wish me to use in the east. Let me start you off successfully at once. See what it's like.

Address. J. E. DOWNIN.

1937 Madison Avenue. :: Baltimore, Md.
